

Gutpela Krismas Tru (A Very Happy Christmas)

I was looking for something different this year and after much searching I found the perfect gift.

It's not a bauble, it won't fit under the Christmas tree, and it can't be wrapped.

It's a GIFT OF HOPE.

I hope you like it!

Have a great Christmas

A friend has bought and sent you a GIFT OF HOPE

On the remote islands of Rambutso in PNG, there is no access to electricity, internet, newspapers or TV on Rambutso. Books are the only source of information and are in drastic short supply

Your GIFT OF HOPE is sending a heap of books to school to help turn the situation around
